

Celebration Planning Committee

Purpose: Assists in the planning of the annual Celebration of Student Research and Creative Activity

Charge:

- Committee assists with the planning of the Celebration each year
- Works with ISRCA to manage the logistics of the event

Membership:

- Committee includes faculty and staff from across the university based on individual interests. To the fullest extent possible, all colleges as well as the library are represented. The Vice Provost for Graduate Education, Research and Outreach and members of that office's staff are automatically members. The Institute for Student Research and Creative Activity manages the day of activities.

Membership Appointment: Provost appoints the committee and co-chairs.

Membership Terms: Committee membership is for one year. Co-chairs are appointed to three year terms. Reappointment is possible.

Frequency of Meetings: 4 times a year plus Celebration week events.

Expected Lifespan: Ongoing

Reporting Requirements: Committee reports to the Vice Provost for Graduate Education, Research and Outreach.

Operating Procedures: ISRCA handles the logistics and day of events; Committee advises and provides staffing for various events.

Relationship to Other Committees: Committee interacts with the Institute for Student Research and Creative Activity as well as the Research Council and the office of the Vice Provost for Graduate Education, Research and Outreach.

Typical Date of Membership Turnover: 10/1

Responsible Office: Vice Provost for Graduate Education, Research and Outreach.
