

Default Question Block

2023 FACULTY ADVOCATE ELECTION

The Faculty Advocate serves as a member of the Faculty Senate Executive Committee and as an officer of the Faculty Senate. The Faculty Advocate serves as a kind of ombudsperson to give advice on process and policy, investigate (on a limited basis) complaints and attempt to resolve them, mediate disagreements, and make recommendations to the Faculty Senate. Please refer to the Faculty Senate Constitution for additional information.

Please review the candidates for your 2023-2024 Faculty Advocate.

We request that you view the candidate statements and any additional information on the Faculty Senate website.

Please select one candidate:

Mark Leeman
Associate Professor
School of Media and Communication

Phil McCartney
Associate Professor
Mathematics and Statistics

Holly Riffe
Professor
Social Work Undergraduate

Brandelyn Tosolt
Associate Professor
Teacher Education

Please click the submit button to cast your vote.
We thank you for your participation in our election process!

Powered by Qualtrics