| Process and Timeline:	Rules:
October 23, 2019 – Announcement to kickoff competition. (on the website, link to the video from the event) Applications will be reviewed (based on rubric, add link to it) and finalists will be notified by December 20, 2019. Finalists will present on January 17, 2020. These will be brief presentations (5-6 minutes) and more details will be provided. A panel of student success experts will judge finalists based on: - The uniqueness of the idea - The positive impact that idea would have on student success Winners will be announced on January 27, 2020.	Eligibility to Compete - Proposal must be designed for your division/college/school/department/unit with the potential to be scaled-up. - If proposal is not selected for funding, the proposal will be forwarded to the appropriate implementation team as a potential future project. - Applicants must be available to attend the presentation phase in person if selected as a finalist. - You can apply as an individual or as a team. - You can submit multiple applications. - Funding is non-reoccurring and you can apply for funding from $5,000 to $100,000 per proposal. - In support of Success by Design, the competition is open to faculty and staff with potential community and student partnerships and collaborations.

Please contact successbydesign@nku.edu with additional questions. As additional questions are submitted, we will update the FAQ listing.