

Undergraduate Academic Affairs Course SLOs

UNV 101: Orientation to College and Beyond

1. Students will identify and utilize campus resources and events to build a support network and increase their college, career, and life success.
2. Students will gain insight into the implications of financial decision-making by applying essential financial literacy practices.
3. Students will effectively locate, evaluate, and utilize academic resources to develop their understanding of ethical responsibilities relevant to research and academic integrity.
4. Students will apply essential course tools, concepts, and skills toward academic and career success.
5. Students will expand their cultural competence through a curriculum that promotes and values diverse perspectives, cultures, and experiences.