Quiz 7: Distribution of the Sample Mean

Name:

In order to estimate the rate of foreclosures in small towns in America, an economist randomly samples 200 towns of population 3,000 to 10,000 in America, then computes the average of their rates of foreclosure.

1. What is the population of interest?

2. Describe the distribution of the sampled average foreclosure rate.