In 1886, Coney Island was a 400-acre apple orchard on the banks of the Ohio River. Since then, Coney Island has become a destination to splash, ride, cheer and play for over 130 years. Home to the largest recirculating swimming pool in the world, Coney Island has become a unique and nostalgic destination. Coney has grown up with Cincinnati, changing with the times but always lifting spirits. It's a place with historic roots and modern attractions; a place that's built not just on childhood charm, but on bringing people together. We've been playful and we've always been distinctly Cincinnati. Embracing who we are, not only gives our visitors a great place to play, but also turns moments into memories for generations.

The Kentucky Department of Juvenile Justice is one of five departments under the Kentucky Justice and Public Safety Cabinet. The department is responsible for prevention programs for at-risk youth, court intake, pre-trial detention, residential placement/treatment services, probation, community aftercare/reintegration programs and youth awaiting adult placement or court. The Kentucky Department of Juvenile Justice (KY DJJ) was established in 1996 with the passage of HB 117 by Kentucky's General Assembly. KY DJJ strives to promote a comprehensive array of cost-effective services for at-risk youth directed toward preventing delinquency, providing efficient rehabilitation services, and altering the rate of recidivism with appropriate aftercare, while minimizing risk to the community. In providing services, the Department supports and believes in the complete involvement of both the family and the community in the rehabilitation process.

Skylight Financial Group's history can be traced back to 1886 when Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (MassMutual), a leading mutual life insurance company run for the benefit of its members and participating policyholders, established an office in Cleveland. Since then, MassMutual has enjoyed a long history of financial strength and strong performance – surviving wars, depressions, recessions and changing market conditions. Although we are a general agency of MassMutual, we also represent many other fine companies and are by no means limited to products that MassMutual can offer. We pride ourselves on being able to provide a comprehensive and integrated planning process which offers a wide range of products best suited to your unique financial needs. We only recommend necessary solutions that will contribute to your goals – that is our top priority.
