

Obituary

Edith E. Ringer, 104, of Bowling Green, Ohio passed away November 19, 2019. Edith was born April 9, 1915 in Cairo, Ohio to the late John W. and Mollie (Foster) Sandy. She married Erwin Ringer on July 16, 1938. He preceded her in death on April 12, 1995.

Edith was a member of First Presbyterian Church, Bowling Green and with her husband, co-owned and operated Spencer Hardware on South Main Street for many years. The Ringers provided housing for Women students from Bowling Green State University for several years in rooms above their store. She served for many years as a faithful volunteer at Wood County Hospital.

Surviving are nephews Larry Sandy, James Parsons, Carl Wingate, Tom Wingate and Niece Jeannette (Sandy) Wood and Niece-in Laws Ruth Sandy and Ruby Sandy along with many Great-Nieces and Nephews.

Edith was preceded in death by siblings Clyde, Nellie, Dorothy, Floyd, John, Carl, Howard and Irene, Nephews Carl J. Sandy, Joe Sandy and Niece Julia (Sandy) Luginbill.

Edith learned at an early age the necessity of hard work and independence. At age nine her Father was tragically killed in a farm equipment boiler explosion, which left her mother, herself and her siblings to manage the family farm. They worked side by side to provide for their large family. As a young adult she moved to Cleveland, Ohio to a job in a clothing factory. It was in Cleveland that she met her future husband, Erwin. They eventually purchased the hardware business and made their home in Bowling Green. She loved her home, her Church and her many friends. She will be remembered for her smile, her positive attitude, her many years of volunteer work and her independence.

The Family would like to thank all of her friends, Wheeled Meal volunteers and her Church family for their dedication in helping bring joy and comfort into her long life. May God shower His Blessing on each one of those special people.

Donations in Edith's memory may be made to: First Presbyterian Church of Bowling Green, Ohio; Wood County Hospital Wheeled Meals, or to a charity of your choice.

The funeral service will be held on Tuesday November 26, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. at Duno Funeral Home, located in the Historical District of Bowling Green at 408 West Wooster St. Rev. David Montgomery will officiate. Interment will follow at Oak Grove Cemetery in Bowling Green. Visitation will be held Tuesday morning at the funeral home from 10:00 a.m. until the time of the service at 11:00 a.m.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake; Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord, forever.
