Undergraduate BIS Program - Assurance of Learning

Goal Number	Learning Goal	Goal Objectives
1	Demonstrate strong analytical skills and technological expertise in developing business systems.	1. Demonstrate sound programming knowledge & skills 2. Effectively apply database design concepts
2	Apply theoretical information systems concepts in real world.	1. Demonstrate practical application of IT project management concepts. 2. Demonstrate understanding of IT project risk management concepts.
3	Evaluate and adopt new technology.	1. Demonstrate skills identifying and comparing software alternatives. 2. Demonstrate skills on understanding tangible and intangible benefits of the new system and the feasibility of the process.
4	Work effectively in diverse project teams.	1. Demonstrate understanding of concepts pertaining to individual and team accountability. 2. Demonstrate understanding of JAD and roll of users in systems development.
5	Demonstrate the ability to integrate IS/IT with other functional areas of the organization.	1. Demonstrate skills using productivity tools to solve common business problems. 2. Demonstrate ability to apply strategic IT value configurations in various business areas